

Sinclair stations use public airwaves free of charge, and are required by law to serve the public interest. One-sided programs, like "Stolen Honor", do not serve the public interest and are harmful to our democracy. If Sinclair does direct its stations to air such programs then their broadcasting licenses should be revoked.